

The HCCH Asia Pacific Week | Hong Kong 2023

Access to Justice and Sustainable Development: The Impact of the HCCH in an Inter-Connected World

The Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law ("HCCH"), with the generous support of the Department of Justice, The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, China and The Faculty of Law of The University of Hong Kong, are pleased to host the HCCH Asia Pacific Week | Hong Kong 2023, Access to Justice and Sustainable Development: The Impact of the HCCH in an Inter-Connected World.

In 2023, the HCCH is celebrating its 130th anniversary. To mark this occasion, the HCCH Asia Pacific Week| Hong Kong 2023 conference will be held. The Conference will be centered around the theme "Access to Justice and Sustainable Development: The Impact of the HCCH in an Interconnected World", with multiple sessions held over the course of four days. The conference will provide a platform for the exchange of ideas and viewpoints from across Asia and the Pacific, covering some of the most prominent HCCH Conventions and instruments, as well as the HCCH's ongoing normative projects and possible future work, in the areas of transnational litigation and legal cooperation, international family and child protection law, and commercial, digital and financial law. The conference will provide a unique opportunity for participants to learn more about the HCCH and its work, to engage with experts from across Asia and the Pacific, and to consider regional experiences and perspectives.
